

Meet baseball legends at BGC event on Sunday, Aug. 2

Join us on Sunday, Aug 2, right after our NCHL Championship Sunday, when the Boys and Girls Club hosts a BBQ and "meet the players" social at Cameron's Inn, from 6-9pm. It's free for kids under 12 and only $20 for everyone else. Come mingle with MLB Hall of Famer Brooks Robinson, Cy Young winner Mike McCormick, World Series MVP Dave Stewart, and 29 ex-major league ballplayers!

For you golfers, there's still room to join the "Swing with the Legends" Golf Classic at the Ritz-Carlton. The Tournament Package is $400. Sponsorship packages run $250 on up, and proceeds benefit BGC programs. Find Joel Farbstein at the Scorer's Table or contact 726-8380 or info@hmbchamber.com for more details.

CYA Footballer shows way to DoubleShot success

Brian Marshall won CYA bragging rights for Week 8 by landing one puck on the BGC logo and another in the faceoff circle. Half of our 12 contestants won something last Sunday, as Ronnie Ekis, Breen Hofmann, Chase Hofmann, Tristan Hofmann and Rocky Raynor also were awarded Snack Bucks for shooting one puck in the circle.

Other participants included Cathy Elchinoff, Phil King, Austin Murison, Nik Pintarelli, Len Tomberlin and Gavin Tomberlin. Along with the Player Meal Deal, Snack Buck, and free Scores 'n More newsletter, Marshall wins the right to publicize CYA/Pop Warner football (shh, we would have done so anyway).

The CYA football season starts Aug. 3, and there's limited space availability, so sign up ASAP. FYI, Pop Warner Football and Cheer is the only league that mandates education. (No grades, no play.) Register online at CoastsideFootball.org, or contact Coach Breen Hofmann at 726-3743 if you're interested in playing or sponsoring a team.

Sean and Brian Marshall (right) proudly display their NCHL prizes and some cool CYA football gear after Brian became only the fifth successful contestant in our DoubleShot contest.

Ref Jensen named to US team

Former NCHL player and current referee Brendan Jensen has been named to USA Hockey's Under-17 Select Team. The 6'1" 180-pounder from El Granada will compete with the US team at the 2009 Under-17 Five Nations Tournament in Germany in late August. Jensen finished the Select Development Camp with a .933 save percentage and a 2.00 goals-against average. Good luck, Brendan!

SF Giants Hat Trick Hats

We doff our cap and award an SF Giants Hat Trick Hat to Adam Mansell and Pace Farbstein for winning their first 3-goal honors. Other hat trick scorers last week included: Austin Elchinoff, Kiernan Gillooley, Peyton Pastorino, and Joe Wenzell (2).

31 players have now captured Hat Trick Hats this year, and 67 hat tricks have been scored in 8 weeks.

Hockey weather returned for Week 8 games at the Boys & Girls Club Rink.

Squirt Division

S2 Dr. Halterman beat S3 Dr. Alborzi 1-0

Ryan Amirsehhi scored on a long slapshot with just :18 left to win the defensive struggle for Dr. Halterman.

Under relentless pressure from the Dr. Alborzi offensive onslaught, Logan Bautista made a phenomenal 18 saves in the first two periods, keeping his team in the game.

Nolan Gallant and Kyle Niermann were good with the wood but couldn't score, thanks to the efforts of Dr. Halterman blueliners Eric Martin and Andy Kope. Cameron DeVry back-checked effectively and kept the pressure on the Dr. Halterman defense all day.

Ryan Niermann and Karsten Lansing split goaltending duties for Dr. Alborzi, allowing only one goal between them.

With time ticking down and the game seem assuredly headed to overtime, Amirsehhi took the puck, exchanged it with MaKaila Reyes, skated in past the defense and fired a slapshot just inside the far post to win for Dr. Halterman's second victory of the year.

Sasha Kulda netminded in the final period to help assure the shutout for Dr. Halterman, which improved to 2-6-2 on the season.

S1 Pastorino Hay defeated S3 Dr. Alborzi 5-1

Peyton Pastorino had 3 goals and 2 assists and the staunch defense of Tegan Mansell and Patrick Hurley led S1 Pastorino Hay to a 5-1 win over S3 Dr. Alborzi.

Pastorino Hay scored twice in the opening period, first on a pass from Pastorino to CJ Vana, who was open in the slot, and then when Pastorino went coast-to-coast for a forehand low to the glove side.

Nolan Gallant cut the lead in half on a low slapshot at the 3:14 of the middle period, but Joey Garcia skated well midrink to stop Ryan Niermann the rest of the way.

Billy Ginna's rebound of a Pastorino shot restored the 2-goal lead. Later in the period, Kyle Niermann had a nice scoring chance, and Cameron DeVry came out of goal to send one just wide. Pastorino scored twice in the third period to ice the game for Pastorino Hay's 8th win of the season.

Karsten Lansing made 5 saves in the final period for Dr. Alborzi, while Patrick Ginna turned aside 7 shots for Pastorino Hay.

Bantam Division

Quick scores give B3 HMB Lions Club 11-6 win over B2 Ocean Shore Hardware

Joe Wenzell's five goals in 11 minutes set the pace for HMB Lions Club in its 11-6 win over Ocean Shore Hardware.

The teams combined for 7 first-period goals, and Wenzell scored first for HMB Lions Club on a wicked high forehand of a pass from Austin Elchinoff just 1:02 in the game.

Ocean Shore Hardware came roaring back with 3 quick goals, first on an unassisted score by Krister Lansing just :08 later, as he fired in a forehand from the faceoff to tie it. The underdogs took the lead on a top shelf shot by guest Kiernan Gillooley off a Lansing pass, and extended the lead to 3-1 when Gillooley took a shot from the slot and brother Kellen Gillooley tipped it in.

HMB Lions Club fought back, as Wenzell scored on a shot through the 5-hole, then tied it on a low slap shot after taking a pass from Sam Vaughn. Wenzell intercepted a pass and sent in a forehand blast for his 4th goal and the lead at the end of the first period.

Scott Brovarney tied the game just :31 into the second period when he skated in and roofed one, but Wenzell scored his 5th as he went in on a 2-on-1 and went 5-hole. Elchinoff scored on a twisting wristshot to make it 6-4 in favor of the HMB Lions Club.

Before the half ended, HMB Lions Club would add a third unanswered goal, as Elchinoff took a pair of passes from Wenzell and Dante DiNapoli and buried one after some nifty skating.

Dante DiNapoli scored :12 into the third when he one-timed a perfect pass from Elchinoff to make it 8-4.

Ocean Shore Hardware cut the lead to 8-5 when Sam Winters blasted one home off a pass from Brovarney.

Shortly after killing an Elchinoff hooking penalty, Vaughn gathered in a Wenzell rebound, skated to the corner, and deposited the puck in the net to restore the 4-goal lead after 3 periods.

Kion Mahrouzadeh made it 10-5 on a tap in of a Vaughn shot

B3 HMB Lions Club built early lead to beat B1 Christine Maren Salon 9-6

Austin Elchinoff and Joe Wenzell combined for 6 goals and 3 assists as HMB Lions Club built a big early lead and held off a depleted Christine Maren Salon squad despite 5 goals by Pace Farbstein.

Sam Vaughn opened the scoring on a tip-in of a Wenzell shot 2:09 into the game. Elchinoff continued his sharpshooting ways as he scored :20 later on a forehand that clanged in off the post.

Jack Fritz scored on a rebound of a Tyler Olson shot to make it 3-0. Elchinoff scored again 1:08 into the second when he skated around the defense and put in a low forehand off a Wenzell pass, and Wenzell scored as he deked the goalie down and deposited a low wrister just :31 later.

The rout was in full swing when Wenzell made it 6-0 as he got behind the defense and fired in a forehand. Elchinoff would be denied a controversial 3rd goal at the end of the half but he got his revenge later in the third period.

With the crowd behind them, Christine Maren Salon refused

Get Well Soon!

This week's wish for a speedy recovery goes out to PeeWee Sean Koenig, the latest NCHL player to go on the Disabled List from a NON-hockey-related injury. His broken thumb was the result of an errant pitch, and as NCHL parents have noticed this season: (skate)Boarding, bikes and baseball have all proven to be more dangerous than hockey.

Ocean Shore Hardware forward Scott Brovarney made a heady play on defense, then kept his head on a swivel as he headed uprink, looking to headman the puck or score his 19th goal of the year.

to make it a 5-goal lead, but Winters scored his second goal on a 5-hole forehand.

HMB Lions Club scored a goal that was meaningless to everyone but DiNapoli, as he fired in a rebound of an Elchinoff shot to make the final score 11-6. Given that plethora of goals, Tyler Olson made 25 saves. Defensemen Jack Fritz and Sam King didn't figure in the scoring, but they did turn aside several rushes by the Ocean Shore Hardware offense, which is tops in the Bantam division in goal scoring.

Goalie Kyla Kemp stopped 14 shots for Ocean Shore Hardware, which fell to 6-4 on the season.

to quit at halftime and came out with a vengeance. Determined to prove the team's mettle. Farbstein went high forehand off a pass from Matthew Williams.

Curtis Jobe shot a forehand from a wicked angle and rattled home the rubber to make it 6-2.

Elchinoff stopped the bleeding when he scored on a long, low wrister to the far corner to make it 7-2, and Tyler Olson tipped in an Elchinoff shot make it a 6-goal game before the end of the 3rd.

Devlin Rocha and Noah Weinstein set out to win the final period for Christine Maren Salon, and they teamed with guest player Carson Murison to put the clamps on high-flying forwards Kion Mahrouzadeh and Sam King, who they held without a point.

Joe Quinlan sprung Pace Farbstein for a breakaway :56 into the 4th and with Elchinoff in hot pursuit, Farbstein put in a patented backhand flip to the glove side to make it 8-3. Inspired by the absence of his brother, Farbstein scored on a rebound of a Weinstein shot to make it a 4-goal game.

Wenzell restored the 5-goal lead on a high forehand to the far side, but the special teams play of Christine Maren Salon took over the rest of the way.

With Quinlan in the penalty box for roughing, Farbstein took a pass from guest Rasmus Green and fired in a forehand.

After the shorthanded goal was followed by some inconsequential penalties, Farbstein padded his stats as he scored with :01 left on a PPG with Wenzell in the Sin Bin, though it was too late to avoid having the team fall to 3-8-1 on the season.

With 9 saves from netminder Dante DiNapoli, HMB Lions Club moved into first place in the Bantam division with a 7-4 record heading into the final week of regulation play.

PeeWee Division

P4 Dr. Maahs defeated P2 Dr. Stasun 4-3

Four different players scored as PeeWee division-leading Dr. Maahs rallied to overcome 3 goals from Adam Mansell to defeat Dr. Stasun 4-3. CJ Trexler got the game-winner after North Cossman, Tom Martin and Rasmus Green lit the red light for the victors.

After a scoreless first period, Cossman took a Martin pass at the 4:38 mark and shot the puck off the goalie's stick to give Dr. Maahs the lead after the only goal of the first half.

Just 1:33 into the second half, Mansell scored on a rebound off a shot from Marek Palladino after a scramble in front of the net to tie the game for Dr. Stasun, Mansell gave the underdogs their first lead when he shot the puck from the right faceoff circle into the far corner of the net, just eluding the goalie's glove.

After the defensive tandem of Liam Williams and Antonio Roman held strong in the third period, Dr. Maahs tied it at 2-2

Dr. Stasun goalie Mason Martuscelli was Dimitri Weinstein's equal, as he made 17 often acrobatic saves. Here he stops Dr. Maahs forward CJ Trexler's attempt at his second goal.

P3 Islander Construction rallied to defeat P1 Dr. Moody 5-3

Kiernan Gillooley had a hat trick and Zane Cordero added a late insurance goal as Islander Construction came from behind to defeat Dr. Moody 5-3.

Tanner Islander got the game's first goal when he took a Gillooley pass and rebounded his own shot under the goalie's glove 1:06 into the first period.

Hunter Murison tied it just :24 later on a hard low shot to the back of the net, and with only :44 left in the period he took a Zane Hovermale pass and was able to find the twine with another low forehand.

Hovermale scored the only goal of the second period when he stole the puck and blasted home a low snap shot, and the defense of Nathaniel Rojo and Jessica Oseguera kept Islander Construction off the board the rest of the half. Travis Modena pressed the attack, but the Dr. Moody defensive pair of Gloria Oseguera and Mark Brazil held firm as Carson Murison made 19 saves, and the game went to halftime at 3-1.

Gillooley scored three consecutive goals to turn the tide, the first coming 1:42 into the half on a forehand than tipped off the defense, then a quick tying goal off the face-off to the far corner of the net. His third, 4:38 into the fourth came on a scramble in front of the net.

Dr. Maahs netminder Dimitri Weinstein put down his paddle to stop the point-blank shot of Dr. Stasun center Marek Palladino, who had 2 points on the day and was looking for his third.

just :34 into the final frame when Martin and Green went in on a 2-1 and the give-and-go worked to perfection, as Martin sent in a low forehand. Dr. Maahs took the 3-2 lead exactly one minute later as Green shot in a wrist shot low to the glove side.

Trexler came from behind the net to score the team's 4th goal in front of the crease, off an assist from Martin with 2:52 left.

Dr. Stasun played hard to the end, though the goaltending of Elliott Salazar stopped Jordan Shepherd's final scoring chances. Dr. Stasun cut the lead to 4-3 with :07 left in the game on a goal by Mansell, as he took a Palladino pass and sent a forehand under the goalie's blocker, but Dimitri Weinstein and Griffen Dulay were able to kill the puck the rest of the way for the team's 7th win.

Mason Martuscelli made 17 second-half saves in relief of Mansell, who stopped 11 first-half shots.

Dr. Moody tried to rally, and Morgan Hovermale was turned aside late, but Cordero scored a top-shelf insurance goal with :12 left.

Indigo Kinzey made 15 second-half saves, but Grayson Capers was his equal in the net for Islander Construction, as the team moved to 4-4-1 on the year.

Recognizing those who contribute to others' success

Joe Quinlan has scored one goal this year, but set up 7 others to lead the Bantams in Assist-to-Goal ratio, proving his value to his team. Christine Maren Salon teammate Noah Weinstein has 3 goals and 8 assists, for second place in the ratio department.

In PeeWees, all 3 of Liam Williams' points have come in setting up other players' scores. Tom Beebe has 1 goal and 5 assists, and Tom Martin sits in 3rd place among scoring leaders because he's excellent at helping out, having scored 5 and assisted on 10 others.

Squirts Tegan Mansell and Andy Vana haven't scored a goal of their own yet this year, but they've both set up two goals.
